30 Apr.

Dear Sister Anna

I am still detained here, and know not how much ^{longer} such may be the Case. I will come out and see you as soon as I can. Had a long letter from Mother yesterday. She writes in good spirits, and represents herself and

Cornelia as getting on on well and happily.

Mother is exceedingly anxious to hear from

James, if you have heard from him you
had better write -

I was sorry to learn from Mr. Rice that

Mrs William Clemon
had to leave on account of bad news.

It is very dull
here -

Love to all
Yours affecly
Pearson

Willard's
April 30th.
